

125 C.T.

130 C.T.

134 C.T. C.T. C.T.

139 (Refr.)

144 H.H. +

149 H.H. + H.H. +

153 H.H. +

The image shows six staves of drum notation for the song 'The Trooper' by Iron Maiden. Each staff is labeled 'Dr.' and contains rhythmic notation with various symbols for cymbals and hi-hats. The notation includes eighth and sixteenth notes, rests, and triplet markings. Specific symbols are labeled with 'C.T.' (China Type cymbal), 'H.H. +' (Hi-Hat), and '3' (triplet). The piece is divided into measures 125-133, 134-138, 139-143, 144-148, 149-152, and 153-157.

www.bateracenter.xpg.com.br

Notação musical:

RC = Prato de condução (Ride Cymbal)    Prato de ataque (Crash)    C.T. = Prato china (China Type)    H.H. + = Chimbal (Hi-Hat)    ⊕ = Chimbal semi-aberto (Half opened Hi-hat)

The legend shows five symbols on a five-line staff: a cymbal symbol (x), a crash symbol (⊗), a China cymbal symbol (⊙), a hi-hat symbol (x with a plus), and a half-opened hi-hat symbol (⊕).

Caixa (Snare)    Bumbo (Bass Drum)    Tom 1    Tom 2    Tom 3    Surdo (Floor tom)

The legend shows six symbols on a five-line staff: a snare drum symbol (x), a bass drum symbol (⊗), a Tom 1 symbol (⊙), a Tom 2 symbol (⊙), a Tom 3 symbol (⊙), and a floor tom symbol (⊙).

www.bateracenter.xpg.com.br